News for the Week of January 5, 2015

Don’t Wait! Apply NOW for Fall 2015 admission!

By: Kelli Adams, Transfer Coordinator

Happy first day of winter quarter! As you get settled in this week with your new classes and new routine, don’t forget that Fall 2015 college admission deadlines are fast approaching!

Here are some of the deadlines for the most popular transfer schools for Seattle Central students:

- January 31st: Washington State University*
- February 1st: The Evergreen State College*
- February 15th: Eastern Washington University*

  University of Washington - Seattle
- March 1st: Central Washington University*

  Seattle University*

  Western Washington University*
- March 15th: University of Washington - Tacoma*
- April 1st: University of Washington - Bothell*

* These universities have priority deadlines and can potentially accept applications past this date if space is available.

Depending on your major (like nursing, engineering, business) deadlines can vary! You may also have to submit an additional application to the major. Check your university’s website for more information.

Did you know...

That UW Tacoma has a new Online Criminal Justice Major? This program follows the same curriculum and major requirements as the on campus major, but offers the flexibility of earning your Bachelor degree completely online! Keep in mind: This program only allows Autumn admission, so make sure to plan accordingly!

Autumn 2015 priority deadline: March 16.
