Helping Seattle Central Students Navigate the University Transfer Process

News for the Week of February 9, 2015

Fall 2015 Deadlines are coming up!!!

By: Kelli Adams, Transfer Coordinator

If you’re planning to enroll in a university for Fall 2015, you’re probably in the process of getting your application together, as deadlines are coming up fast! Here’s a look at some popular college deadlines, and a review of what we can help you with in the Transfer Center!

- University of Washington
  Seattle: February 15th (THIS SUNDAY!!!)
- Eastern Washington University: February 15th (THIS SUNDAY!!!)
- Seattle University– March 1st
- Central Washington University– March 1st
- Western Washington University– March 1st
- University of Washington Tacoma: March 15th
- University of Washington Bothell: April 1st

Here in the Transfer Center, we’ve been helping students prepare their applications by going through the checklist of components, as well as reviewing tons of personal statements. Did you know that In the Transfer Center, there are student computers for you to complete your online applications? It’s a great way to get your application done while having a Transfer Coordinator available to answer your questions as you go!

Have an application or personal statement that you want us to look over?

- E-mail us your essays and we will give comments on content and flow within one week: transfercenter.central@seattlecolleges.edu
- Call or drop in to schedule an appointment:
  We are located in room BE 1102 F, 206-934-5469