I missed the application deadlines, can I still apply for Fall 2015 admission?

By: Kelli Adams, Transfer Coordinator

Many deadlines for Fall 2015 admission have passed, but there are some universities that are still accepting transfer applications! Admissions folks call this "rolling admission". What that means is that they will continue to accept applicants after their priority deadline based on how many seats they still have available for that quarter. What that means for you is there is still a chance to transfer for Fall 2015!

Schools still accepting Fall 2015 applications:

- Central Washington University
- Eastern Washington University
- The Evergreen State College
- Seattle Pacific University
- Seattle University
- University of Washington - Bothell
- University of Washington - Tacoma
- Western Washington University
- Washington State University

Keep in mind that some schools might be accepting applications for some majors and not others, so when in doubt call their admissions office to ask! And remember the key word: rolling admission!
