Questions to ask an Engineer

1. How would you characterize an average day at your job? What percentage of your day do you spend solving technical engineering problems?

2. What is your favorite project that you have worked on as an engineer?

3. If you could have taken more of a specific type of class in college what would you have taken?

4. How do the principles of science and mathematics apply to your everyday tasks?

5. What do you think is going to become the biggest challenge for engineers in the future?

6. How is sustainability integrated into your job as an engineer?

7. What characteristics does your company look for when hiring young engineers?

8. Are internships important for an engineering student?

9. How important is understanding business to being successful as an engineer?

10. Is your job what you expected it would be? If different, then how is it different?

Add your own: