2017-2018

Seattle Central College Service and Activities Fees Budget Committee

Policies and Procedures

District policy requires that students participate in the development of the S & A budget for recommendation to the Board of Trustees. Seattle Community College District Policy and Procedures 345.10 states:

“The recognized student government organization shall develop, in cooperation with the student services administration and professional staff, procedures for budget development, composition and operating procedures of the services and activities fees committee, and all other services and activities budget matters. Such provision shall be adopted as part of the approved student government constitution for each campus and prepared for approval by the Board of Trustees.”

Seattle Central Associated Student Council By-laws (Article X, Section I) states:

The ASC shall empower the Executive of Finance to establish the Services and Activities (S & A) Budget Committee to review requests for S & A funding, and submit budget recommendations for approval by the ASC, in accordance with the Revised Code of Washington State and Seattle College District VI Policies and Procedures related to Student Service and Activities Fees.

- A. The S & A Budget Committee shall consist of the Dean of Student Development, the Executive of Finance, and no less than three (3), but no more than six (6) students who are not current members of the ASC.
- B. All members shall review each application and individually score it.
- C. This committee shall reflect the diversity of the Associated Students of Seattle Central College.

The S & A Budget Committee is organized, convened and chaired by the Associated Student Council Executive of Finance, advised by the Dean of Student Development or the appointed designee, and supported by the Student Leadership administrative assistant. Voting members must attend all meetings of the committee.

The purpose of the S & A Budget Committee is to design and recommend to the Associated Student Council an S & A Budget Proposal that reflects and serves the greatest number of Seattle Central students with a broad spectrum of services and activities that engage and empower the student body and support the mission and core values of Seattle Central College.

- The S & A Budget Committee receives training fall quarter and accepts and reviews applications for small, one-time grants.
- During winter quarter, the S & A Budget Committee meets with current S & A grant recipients who report on the goals, objectives, and success of funded projects, services, and activities.
- A call for proposals for S & A funding for the following year is distributed widely on campus with a due date immediately following spring break.
- The S & A Budget Subcommittee reviews and scores applications and decides on the allocations for the following year, forwarding their proposed budget to the Associated Student Council for approval.
- When approved by the Associated Student Council, the S & A budget is submitted to the college president, who can request amendments before forwarding it to the Board of Trustees.
