Future Education

Once you complete this Associate degree, additional education opportunities include, but are not limited to:

A Bachelor's degree in Gender/Women/Sexuality Studies or a related field at a four-year college or university.

Seattle Central College has direct transfer agreements with four-year institutions throughout Washington state, including the University of Washington, Washington State University, and Seattle University. Gender/Women/Sexuality Studies graduates from Central have also transferred to out-of-state institutions. Program and admissions requirements vary from college-to-college. Contact a Central advisor to create an educational plan tailored to transfer to the institution of your choice. You can use the College Navigator search engine found at <http://nces.ed.gov/collegenavigator> to find Gender/Women/Sexuality Studies programs in Washington state or around the country.
