

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITY

(Updated: 8/23/22)

Agency Name: Mary Schwartz Summit

Agency Description: Part of the Kline Galland Circle of Care, and is the only Jewish retirement community in WA State. Offers both independent and assisted living apartments with a Jewish environment. Provides recreational, fitness and education opportunities, in addition to wellness and social services. Residents thrive in a dynamic, enriched lifestyle embracing Jewish culture and traditions.

Position Description: Volunteers support a variety of enriching, stimulating, and fun programs, and enhance the quality of life of residents. Volunteer opportunities include:

- Caring Companions (1:1 social visits with residents)
- Memory Support Programs, such as challah baking, music, trivia or leading special interest groups
- Tech Support for residents
- Life Enrichment Programs, supporting a variety of recreational programming (bingo, card and board games; arts and crafts projects; special interest groups)
- Pet Visits

Qualifications: Volunteers should be dependable, have a pleasant and compassionate personality, and an interest in helping and supporting others. A desire to engage with the elderly and an openness to working in a Jewish environment are important.

Days/Hours: Preferred days are Sunday through Friday; some opportunities are available on Saturdays but activities are more limited. Recommended times are 10:30 am – 12 pm, 1:30 pm – 5:30 pm. 20 hour commitment preferred

Number of openings: Opportunities consistently available

TB test required prior to start (available on-site at no cost)

COVID-related requirements: All necessary testing and PPE supplies are available on site and free of charge. A Volunteer Services representative will review the following requirements during the phone interview.

- Volunteers must be fully vaccinated and provide a copy of their vaccine card
- Pre-shift screening and temperature check
- Compliance with required PPE, which will be provided by the agency
- Routine COVID testing (available on-site at no cost)
