

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITY

(Updated: 9/7/22)

Agency Name: North Helpline

Position Title: Volunteer

Company/Organization Description: North Helpline is a non-profit organization that works to alleviate hunger and crisis in our community by providing basic human resources such as nutritious food, hygiene items, baby supplies, financial support to avoid eviction or utility shut-off, and other services.

North Helpline was founded in 1989 by a group of citizens concerned about the welfare of their neighbors. North Helpline now serves over 3,000 unduplicated households each year and distributes over one million pounds of food through the food bank. Since its inception, it has been their mission to help ensure everyone has food on their table and a roof over their head. We strive to deliver our services to those in need with both dignity and respect.

Position Descriptions: A variety of tasks that include: Food distribution client check-in, assisting clients with the transportation of their groceries to their cars by carts, restocking food crates on the distribution line, sorting food donations, helping in the baby cupboard area, and assisting with administrative tasks as needed. Volunteers will learn about the great needs of social service programs in their community and how their work directly impacts the lives of families, veterans, seniors, and many other individuals in need within the community.

Qualifications:

Willingness to learn, an open mind and ability to work in a fast-paced environment. Some volunteer position will require the ability to lift more than 20 pounds. However, we do work with volunteers with physical limitations to find a position that works for them.
