Agency Description:

If you are excited to get outside and help kids learn, join Tiny Trees! Tiny Trees Preschool gives children a quality education and a joyful, nature-rich childhood: one full of play, exploration and wonder in outdoor classrooms at Seattle and King County public parks. We strive to create safe and affirming outdoor spaces that support children's physical, emotional and intellectual development.

Position Descriptions: Tiny Trees is, in large part, able to provide such an enriching, engaging preschool program because children and adults in the classroom are able to build relationships predicated on discovery, growth, and joy.

Service-Learners in Tiny Tree classrooms will have the opportunity to be an enthusiastic support for kids and teachers! Service-Learners will be able to:

- Support early childhood learning
- Dig, build, explore, play, and splash in the mud with kids
- Help teach kids about their environment

Days and hours students can serve in this position:

- Olympic Sculpture Park (mornings 9-1)
- Camp Long (morning 9-1)
- Jefferson Park (morning 9-1)
- Carkeek Park (mornings 8:30-12:30 and afternoons 1-4)
- Beer Sheva Park (9am to 3pm)
- Big Finn Hill Park (9-1)

Minimum time commitment required of volunteers:4 hours per week
