

Updated: 9/19/2022

Name of Agency: Unity Museum: Envisioning One Humanity

Volunteer Site Address: 4341 ½ University Way Suite 210
Seattle, Wa. 98105

Mailing Address: Unity Museum
c/o Zabine Van Ness
5531 25th Ave. N.E.
Seattle, Wa. 98106

Agency Hours: Tuesday, Wednesday, Saturday, Sunday from 11:00 to 3:00

Contact: Zabine Van Ness, Unity Museum Director

Phone: 206 390-9982

Email: zabine123@gmail.com

Website: www.unitymuseum.org

BEST WAY TO APPLY (phone, e-mail, drop-in): phone, email or visit museum

Agency Description: The Unity Museum: Envisioning One Humanity is dedicated to exploring our local, national and global heritage through historical exhibits and presentations that address social justice movements promoting racial, gender and income equality and the peaceful resolution of conflict.

Position Descriptions:

- museum docent
- museum exhibit research and development
- tech support in web and social media outreach
- museum program development
- community and educational outreach
- museum management
- archive and library tasks

Days and hours students can serve in this position: Virtual and on-site opportunities are available working with the Unity Museum staff. (see times and days above)

Minimum time commitment required of volunteers: Optional, based upon the needs of the students

What qualities, abilities and skills are important to your agency? self-directed, positive, inquisitive, willing to work closely with the Unity Museum staff and other volunteers on a wide variety of tasks they undertake.

Is volunteer orientation provided? Yes,

Length of time students should budget for it: One or two hours

Is volunteer training provided? yes

Length of time students should budget for it: Varies on interests and availability of the volunteer.

Is on-site supervision provided? yes

Number of Service-Learning position available per quarter: unlimited