

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITY

(Updated: 9/22/23)

Position Title: Volunteer

Agency Name: The Unity Museum—Envisioning One Humanity

Agency Description:

The Unity Museum is a museum dedicated to understanding our common historical heritage, as well as promoting racial, gender and income equality, universal education, and peaceful resolution of conflict. Many exhibits focus on the topic of social change.

The Museum Long has ongoing programs: Open mics; webinars; chess master sessions; Seattle Film Makers Association; poetry readings; and student gatherings. The museum has a lending library, study library, crafts room, and a children's activity room.

The Unity Museum is a division of the Uniting Hearts Networking Institute, a non-profit organization providing a range of educational services. They provide highly qualified faculty from around the globe who inform, entertain, and inspire social and moral clarity on a wide range of topics. They collaborate with educational institutions to tailor presentations so their presentations can augment or be a core part of coursework. Some examples of topics and curricula they have presented: Race/racial equality; gender/gender equality; tolerance; comparative religion; human relations in organizations; business ethics, Middle Eastern studies; cultural anthropology; global studies; English literature; history and philosophy.
