

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITY

(Updated: April 2025)

Position Title: Volunteer Peer Tutor

Agency Name: Learning Support Network (LSN)

Agency Description:

The LSN is dedicated to student success. We offer free tutoring and academic support to help students thrive in college.

Position Description:

Looking to make a difference on campus, build your resume, and support fellow students? Join us as a Volunteer Peer Tutor!

As a tutor, you'll help others succeed in your strongest subject areas through one-on-one, group, or in-class (embedded) tutoring. You'll also have opportunities to mentor new tutors, create helpful study materials, and assist with outreach to spread the word about our services.

Why volunteer with us?

- Gain hands-on experience in education, leadership, and communication
- Get involved in a vibrant, supportive learning community
- Build your confidence and skills for future careers
- Make a real difference in the lives of your peers

What You'll Do:

You will be a great fit if you:

- Support students in understanding coursework and building study habits
- Lead or assist with group and classroom-based tutoring
- Create and share study guides or learning tools
- Help with outreach events and tutor mentorship
- Use tech tools like Canvas, Zoom, and Microsoft Teams

Qualifications

We're Looking For:

- Strong academic background in your tutoring subjects
- Friendly, patient, and reliable
- Comfortable working with students from diverse backgrounds
- Willing to learn and grow as a tutor

Volunteer shifts are flexible and run during academic quarters when classes are in session. Most activities take place on campus, with some online opportunities. Training and support are provided!

Total number of weekly hours: Flexible (3 initial hours for training at the beginning of the volunteering period)

Days/Hours: Flexible (during LSN Open Hours)

Number of openings: 5+ (Flexible)
