

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITY

(Updated: 8/5/25)

Position Title: Volunteer or Intern

Agency Name: Washington Fair Trade Coalition

Agency Description: A non-profit organization that works toward getting a global trading system that functions on behalf of people and the planet. programs.

Position Description: The Executive Director will work with interested students to develop a project they're interested in. In the past, students have done content development for the website, helped with project outreach and helped facilitate events.

Needed for sure: Someone to help with fundraising opportunities, helping with outreach to new organizations.

Qualifications: Interest in social justice issues, ability to write clearly, attention to detail.

Total number of weekly hours: To be determined.

Days/Hours: Because WFTC work is remote now, students can do the work whenever they want. The Executive Director is available 9am – 5 pm, Monday-Friday to answer questions.

No minimum time commitment although most intern projects are at least 10 hours of work.

Number of openings: To be determined

Start Date: Continuous

Address: 10002 Aurora Ave N Suite 36 PMB 571

City, State, Zip: Seattle, Washington 98133

Contact Person: Julie Bouanna

E-mail Address: julie@washingtonfairtrade.org

Phone: 206-227-3079

Web Address: <https://washingtonfairtrade.org>

Application Instructions: Please email for additional information.