Agency Description:

Founded in 1992, the Asian Pacific American Labor Alliance (APALA), AFL-CIO, is the first and only national organization of Asian American and Pacific Islander (AAPI) workers, most of whom are union members, and our allies advancing worker, immigrant and civil rights. Since its founding, APALA has played a unique role in addressing the workplace issues of the AAPI union members and in serving as the bridge between the broader labor movement and the AAPI community. The Seattle chapter is one of the 35 chapters across the country and over the last few years has grown to be the largest chapter of our organization.

Position Descriptions:

Responsibilities with working with our chapter includes:

- Observing and note taking at meetings
- Working on projects that may include online research, emails, phone calls, text messages.
- Assist in supporting, organizing and planning events including webinars, picket lines and solidarity actions
- Attend trainings and webinars to further organizing skills and knowledge of the labor movement.
