- College Council workgroup updates
  - Critical Issues
    - Workgroup update – Naina
      - There were two focus groups
        - Most difficulty was in finding students to attend
        - More success in finding students in targeted focus groups
        - Need better student incentives next year
      - Please take the survey that Naina sent out
      - Review of surveys and student focus groups in Fall
      - Critical Issues Process is to learn about specific issues on campus and respond in a timely manner

Strategic Planning

- Forum session update – Bradley
  - Forum on Monday, June 10, 2019
    - What can we do for students early on?
    - Communication, uniformity between colleges, partnerships with high schools and employers (career training) and other colleges, using racial equity toolkit,
  - Management Retreat in summer will discuss the content of the forum
  - Thanks to all who helped with Strategic Planning!

- Seattle Pathways Update
  - District wide learning outcomes for college success courses – Kao
  - Realign steering committee to align with district and other colleges
  - Long-term goal: designing a course for students
  - Running Start and Basic Transitional Studies students created outcomes, which were compared to the outcomes that the Seattle Pathways Steering Committee have
    - Add Central-specific content about identity and equity?
      - Could do a scan of courses being offered and look at whether they address equity, diversity, and inclusion/if students are prepared to look at issues through an equity lens
  - Meeting about outcomes across colleges next week
  - Title III meeting next week

- Announcement: Commencement - Bradley
  - Commencement on Friday at T-Mobile Park
  - Camila Christensen is speaking!
