Agency Description: Kandelia, previously known as VFA, is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit community organization providing direct programs, opportunities, and tools to address systemic inequities so immigrant and refugee families and communities can thrive without having to compromise values, heritage or ethnicity. Many Kandelia staff operate out of Seattle World School, and serve the school's students and their families, most of whom are recently arrived refugees or immigrants.

Position Descriptions: We are looking for remote tutors to assist in virtual classes, group homework-help sessions, and afternoon one-on-one tutoring.

Days and hours students can serve in this position: Monday through Friday, 9am to 5pm.

Minimum time commitment required of volunteers: 1 hour per week

What qualities, abilities and skills are important to your agency?
Tutors will be working primarily with students who are recently arrived in the United States, and so cultural responsiveness is essential. Most students are English Language Learners, and therefore patience and the ability to help students understand using a variety of methods is also critical.

Is volunteer orientation provided? Yes
Length of time students should budget for it: Approximately 1.5 hours

Is volunteer training provided? Yes
Length of time students should budget for it: Approximately 1.5 hours

Is on-site supervision provided? All volunteering is currently remote; volunteers will never be on-site.

Number of Service-Learning position available per quarter: 40+
