Agency Description: Kandelia is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit community organization providing direct programs, services, and tools to address systemic inequities so immigrant and refugee families and communities can thrive without having to compromise values, heritage or ethnicity. Many Kandelia staff operate out of Seattle World School, and serve the school's students and their families, all of whom are recently arrived refugees or immigrants.

Position Descriptions: We are looking for volunteer tutors to assist directly in classrooms and during after school programs at Seattle World School. All volunteer roles will occur in-person at the school during fall 2021. For more information about available volunteer roles, see the Seattle World School and Kandelia GivePulse page.

Days and hours students can serve in this position: Monday through Friday, 9am to 5pm

Minimum time commitment required of volunteers: 1 hour per week

What qualities, abilities and skills are important to your agency?

Tutors will be working primarily with students who are recently arrived in the United States, and so cultural responsiveness is essential. Most students are English Language Learners, and therefore patience and the ability to help students understand using a variety of methods is also critical.
